

Daryna Rura:

Picture: private

Daryna Rura was born into a family of musicians and loved listening to classical music and attending theaters since childhood. At the age of 8 she showed a desire to practice on a wind instrument. Subsequently she started to practice flute and to study in the I. Shamo music school № 7. At the age of 12 she successfully passed exams at the M. Lysenko Kyiv Specialized Secondary Music Boarding School and showed a desire to study the bassoon.

During this time Daryna took part in many competitions:

2011 – competition «New Names»;

2012 – 1st International Instrumental Competition named by Yevhen Stankovych, 3rd place;

2015 – All-Ukrainian competition "Classics Horizons", 1st place;

2015 – 3rd International Instrumental Competition named by Yevhen Stankovych, 2nd place;

2016 – Competition «21 Century Art», 3rd place in ensemble performance (trio) and 2nd place in solo performance;

2017 – All-Ukrainian competition of performers on wind instruments and percussion instruments in memory of M. Tymokha, 2nd place.

Now Daryna is studying for the 2nd year (Bachelor's Degree) at the R. Gliere Kyiv Institute of Music.

Video recording of the performance:

<https://youtu.be/zZ3qXqhuHH8>